

Lil Drummer Boy of the Rappahannock

The Call

By DALE GLASGOW

The Little Drummer Boy of the Rappahannock is a remarkable story that gives us hope when we're faced with death.

Robert Henry Hendershot was a 12 year old drummer boy for the 8th Michigan infantry in the Civil War, 1862 while serving in Fredericksburg, Virginia. A boy with nerve-- was first to push off boats loaded with soldiers towards enemy territory. Accidentally, he didn't let go-- and was dragged to the enemy's battle front.

Landing on the battle front, and faced with new soldier duties-- Hendershot found a stranded enemy soldier in a basement. He gave him consolation and amazingly-- this 12 year old, brought this enemy soldier to surrender-- that saved him from death.

© 2009 DALE GLASGOW
CALL FOR PRINT SALES & SIGNINGS

540 - 286 - 2539
WWW.DALEGLASGOW.COM

146th Anniversary Series

IMAGERY BY
DALE GLASGOW
CERTIFIED ORIGINAL

Lil Drummer
Boy of the Rappahannock
Limited Edition Series
By DALE GLASGOW

540 ~ 286 ~ 2539
DALEGLASGOW.COM

Dale Glasgow Sample

R e d e m p t i o n

Giclee Canvas Full-size***
100 signed/numbered, $100
2 S/N, artist proofs, $250
12 x 16 image size
14 x 18 overall unstretched

*Shipping & Handling/Additional

Dale Glasgow Sample

T h e C a l l

Giclee Fine Art Paper***
Open edition, $50
Artist proofs, $75
10 x 14 image size
14 x 18 overall size

Remarques available

Dale Glasgow Sample

S u r r e n d e r

Dale Dennis Glasgow was interested in art from an early age of 3. "Being an artist everyday, has been my passion" says Dale. Experience in working at National Geographic magazine, and many Fortune 500 companies has developed his skill for artistic detail. His work can be found in many collections, public and private, including American Express, and the Smithsonian. His wife of 25+ years and children -- live in Hartwood, Virginia.

Dale Glasgow